CHAPTER 3-05-03
REVIEW OF REPORTS

3-05-03-01. Review of reports. Repealed effective October 1, 1999.

3-05-03-02. Scope of review. The documents submitted in accordance with sections 3-05-02-01 and 3-05-02-04 shall be reviewed, to determine:

1. Whether the report is in general conformity with applicable professional standards;

2. If not, in what respect the report is substandard (meaning materially inaccurate or misleading) or marginal (meaning containing deficiencies but not materially inaccurate or misleading); and

3. Any recommendations concerning improvement of the quality of the report.

The board shall review these determinations and recommendations.

History: Effective June 1, 1988; amended effective July 1, 1991; September 1,1997; October 1, 1999.
General Authority: NDCC 43-02.2-03
Law Implemented: NDCC 43-02.2-06

3-05-03-03. Appointment of reviewer by board. If a report is substandard or marginal pursuant to section 3-05-03-02, the board may direct that a review of the workpapers be conducted by a person other than the person who performed the review of the report.

History: Effective June 1, 1988; amended effective July 1, 1991; October 1,1999.
General Authority: NDCC 43-02.2-03
Law Implemented: NDCC 43-02.2-06

3-05-03-04. Board review of committee's determinations. Repealed effective September 1, 1997.

3-05-03-05. Review of peer reviews. Documents submitted in accordance with section 3-05-02-01.1 and 3-05-02-02 must be reviewed, and resultant findings and recommendations must be given to the board for appropriate action, which may include similar actions to those in section 3-05-04-01.

History: Effective July 1, 1991; amended effective March 1, 1995; September 1,1997; October 1, 1999.
General Authority: NDCC 43-02.2-03
Law Implemented: NDCC 43-02.2-06